Sessione A

I siti ad elefanti dell'area romana

Sites with elephant remains in the Roman area

Lithic and bone industries of OIS 9 and OIS 7 in the Roman area	3
A.P. Anzidei, I. Biddittu, P. Gioia, M. Mussi, M. Piperno
Distribution in space and time and analysis of preservation factors of Pleistocene deposits in the Roman area	10
A. Arnoldus-Huyzendveld, F. Zarlenga, P. Gioia, M.R. Palombo
Updating Middle Pleistocene fossil birds data from Quartaccio quarry (Vitinia, Roma, Italy)	18
C. Bedetti
La tecnica di scheggiatura bipolare applicata ai ciottoli	23
E. Cancellieri, A. Coppola, E. D'Angelo, R. Di Leo, M.F. Rinaldi, D. Rossi
The Roman area natural environment: geomorphological features and lithic resources	27
C. Caputo, A. Arnoldus-Huyzendveld, F. Pugliese
A Middle Pleistocene deposit with Elephas antiquus remains near Colleferro (Roma)	34
P. Celletti, C. Giovinazzo, A. Molinaro, I. Biddittu, A. Zarattini
Middle Pleistocene geology of the “Bassa Campagna Romana”	38
D. De Rita, F. Zarlenga
Middle and Upper Pleistocene natural environment in the Roman area: climate, vegetation and landscape	43
M. Follieri, D. Magri
General geological features of the Campagna Romana	48
R. Funiciello, M. Parotto
The Elephants at the Leonardo Da Vinci Institute in Rome	53
M. Greco
Seeing use-wear on the “oldest tools”: La Polledrara di Cecanibbio and Casal de’ Pazzi (Rome)	57
C. Lemorini

Transitions in human evolution and faunal changes during the Pleistocene in Latiun (Central Italy)	59
G. Manzi, M.R. Palombo, L. Caloi, F. Mallegni
Human/carnivore interaction in the Middle Pleistocene of Latium (Central Italy): an open question	67
M. Mussi, M.R. Palombo
Palaeontology and prehistory in Central Italy: an historical summary	76
A.G. Segre

Sessione B1

Proboscidiati del Pliocene e del Pleistocene inferiore: siti e ambiente Pliocene and Early Pleistocene Proboscideans: sites and environment

New data on the diversity of Elephants (Mammalia, Proboscidea) in the Early and early Middle Pleistocene of France	81
N. Aouadi
Proboscidea of the Greek Pliocene-Early Pleistocene faunas: biochronological and palaeoecological implications	85
A. Athanassiou, D.S. Kostopoulos
Plio-Pleistocene Proboscidea and Lower Palaeolithic bone industry of Southern Latium (Italy)	91
I. Biddittu, P. Celletti
Functional morphology of small-sized deer from the Early and Middle Pleistocene of Italy: implication For paleolandscape reconstruction	97
R.V. Croitor
Functional morphology and ecology of Villafranchian Proboscideans from Central Italy	103
M.P. Ferretti, R.V. Croitor
History of Quaternary Proboscideans of the South of Western Siberia inferred from dental system analysis	109
I.V. Foronova
Remains of fossil elephants in Poland	115
H. Kubiak
Contributions to the study of the Neogene representatives of Ordo Proboscidea (Mammalia) from Eastern Europe	119
A. Lungu, T. Obada
On the presence of Elephas recki at the Oldowan prehistoric site of Fejej FJ-1 (Ethiopia)	122
P.E. Moullé, A. Echassoux, Z. Alemseged, E. Desclaux

Elasmotherians - evolution, distribution and ecology	126
N.G. Noskova
Age of some European localities with elephant remains determined by the biometric method	129
M.A. Pevzner, E.A. Vangengeim
“Proboscidean agent” of some Tertiary megafaunal extinctions	133
P.V. Pushkov
Analysis of the Early Pleistocene elephants from Buia (Eritrea)	137
L. Rook, M.P. Ferretti, Y. Libsekal
Elephas recki from Dandero, Northern Danakil Depression, Eritrea	143
J. Shoshani, R.C. Walter, Y. Libsekal, S. Berhe, R.T. Buffler, B. Negassi
Proboscidean fossils from the Japanese Archipelago and Taiwan Islands and their relationship with the Chinese mainland	148
K. Takahashi, C.H. Chang, Y.N. Cheng
Most ancient elephants from the south of Russia	152
V.V. Titov
Pliocene faunas with Proboscideans of the Former Soviet Union	157
I.A. Vislobokova, M.V. Sotnikova

Sessione B2/B3

I Proboscidiati del Pleistocene medio: siti e ambiente The Middle Pleistocene Proboscideans: sites and environment

Abruzzo (Italy): the Plio-Pleistocene proboscidean-bearing sites	163
S. Agostini, E. Di Canzio, M.A. Rossi
The fauna of La Polledrara di Cecanibbio and Rebibbia-Casal de' Pazzi (Rome, Italy) as an indicator for site formation processes in a fluvial environment	167
A.P. Anzidei, E. Cerilli
Elephants from the delta of Paleo-Don river	172
V.S. Bajgusheva
The Early Palaeolithic butchery site of Barogali (Republic of Djibouti)	176
A. Berthelet, J. Chavaillon
Birds over the mammoths' head in Bulgaria	180
Z.N. Boev
The Mercure River Basin (Southern Italy): Quaternary stratigraphy and large mammal biochronology	187
G.P. Cavinato, C. Petronio, R. Sardella

The Elephas recki site of Haïdalo (Republic of Djibouti)	191
J. Chavaillon, A. Berthelet
The Paleolithic finds from Bollschweil and the question of Neanderthal mammoth hunting in the Black Forest	194
N.J. Conard, L. Niven
Finds of Proboscidean remains in the territory of the Southern Urals region	201
G.A. Danukalova, A.G. Yakovlev
The elephant remains from the Agro Pontino, Latina, Central Italy	205
M. La Rosa, P. Mazza, M. Rustioni
The Middle and Late Pleistocene Mammoth remains from Hanhoffen (Bas-Rhin, France)	209
S. Louguet
Spanish Pleistocene Proboscidean diversity as a function of climate	214
J. van der Made, A.V. Mazo
Computer-based recording systems of Pleistocene deposits with large mammals	219
R. Mora, J. Parcerisas, J. Martinez
Middle Pleistocene fauna and lithic implements from Pagliare di Sassa (L'Aquila, Central Italy)	224
M.R. Palombo, L. Abbazzi, S. Agostini, P. Mazza, M. Mussi
The Elephant Butchery Area at the Middle Pleistocene site of Notarchirico (Venosia, Basilicata, Italy)	230
M. Piperno, A. Tagliacozzo
The American Mastodon Mammut americanum in Mexico	237
O.J. Polaco, J. Arroyo-Cabral, E. Corona-M., J.G. López-Oliva
Taphonomy of Stegodon orientalis at Panxian Dadong, a Middle Pleistocene site in Guizhou, South China	243
L.A. Schepartz, S. Stoutamire, D.A. Bakken
Late Middle Pleistocene Mastodons and Elephants of the Thames Valley, Oxfordshire	247
K. Scott
Mammal fauna remains in the Middle Pleistocene volcanic deposits from Northeastern Sabatini Volcanic District area (Latium, Italy)	255
G. Sottili, P. Celletti
The Elephants of Terra Amata open air site (Lower Paleolithic, France)	260
P. Valensi

Sessione B4

Elefanti, mammut e mastodonti del Pleistocene superiore: siti e ambiente

Late Pleistocene Elephants, Mammoths and Mastodons: sites and environment

Reconstruction of mammoth environments at different stages of the Pleistocene in the West-Siberian Plain	267
A.V. Borodin, T.V. Strukova, S.S. Trofimova, E.V. Zinoviev
Settepolesini di Bondeno (Ferrara-Eastern Po Valley): the first example of mammoth steppe in Italy	272
V. Gallini, B. Sala
Reconstructions of Woolly Mammoth life history	276
R.D. Guthrie
New data on mammoth bone dwellings of Eastern Europe in the light of the new excavations of the Ginsy site (Ukraine)	280
L.A. Iakovleva, F. Djindjian
Palaeoloxodon naumanni and its environment at the paleolithic site of Lake Nojiri, Nagano Prefecture, Central Japan	284
Y. Kondo, N. Mazima, Nojiri-ko Research Group
New data on the “Mammoth” fauna of the Laptev Shelf Land (East Siberian Arctic)	289
T.V. Kuznetsova, L.D. Sulerzhitsky, Ch. Siegert
The Late Pleistocene beast solonetz of Western Siberia: “mineral oases” in mammoth migration paths, foci of the Palaeolithic man’s activity	293
S.V. Leshchinskii
Eastern European mammoth distribution and environments during the Middle Valdai Briansk Interstade (33,000-24,000 BP)	299
A.K. Markova, A.N. Simakova, A.Yu. Puzachenko, L.M. Kitayev
The Jarkov Mammoth: 20,000-Year-Old carcass of a Siberian woolly mammoth Mammuthus primigenius (Blumenbach, 1799)	305
D. Mol, Y. Coppens, A.N. Tikhonov, L.D. Agenbroad, R.D.E. MacPhee, C. Flemming, A. Greenwood, B. Buigues, C. de Marliave, B. van Geel, G.B.A. van Reenen, J.P. Pals, D.C. Fisher, D. Fox
The Fishhook Mammoth: rediscovery of a Woolly Mammoth carcass by the CERPOLEX/Mammuthus Team, Taimyr Peninsula, Siberia	310
D. Mol, A.N. Tikhonov, R.D.E. MacPhee, C. Flemming, B. Buigues, C. de Marliave, Y. Coppens, L.D. Agenbroad
Microlithic Middle Palaeolithic assemblages in Central Europe and elephant remains	314
M.-H. Moncel

Seasonal hunting of mammoth in the Ach-Valley of the Swabian Jura	318
S.C. Münzel
The role of mammoths in Upper Palaeolithic economies of southern Germany	323
L. Niven
Mammoths from Upper Palaeolithic sites in the Ardèche (France)	328
G. Onoratini, J. Combier, I. Baroni, A. Arellano-Mouillé, C. Joris
Mammoth and subsistence practices during the Mid Upper Palaeolithic of Central Europe (Moravia, Czech Republic)	331
S. Péan
The Pleistocene Gomphotheres (Proboscidea) from South America: diversity, habitats and feeding ecology	337
J.L. Prado, M.T. Alberdi, B. Azanza, B. Sánchez, D. Frassinetti
The conditions of existence of Mammuthus primigenius Blumenbach in the periglacial zone of Eastern Europe	341
L. Rekovets
Comparisons of stegodon and elephantid abundances in the Late Pleistocene of southern China	345
H. Saegusa
Of Mice, Men and Elephants - lithic tools and faunal remains at the Late Pleistocene site of Masangano (Rwanda)	350
U. Schmidt
The vegetation and mammoth distribution during the second half of the Late Pleistocene on the Russian Plain (33-17 ka)	355
A.A. Simakova
Gravettian mammoth bone deposits in Moravia	359
J. Svoboda
Man and Mammoth in Pleistocene Siberia	363
S.A. Vasil'ev
The woolly mammoth (Mammuthus primigenius) remains from the Upper Palaeolithic site Kraków Spadzista Street (B)	367
P. Wojtal
The Upper Palaeolithic mammoth site at Halich (Ukraine)	373
P. Wojtal, K. Cyrek
Unique preservation of a mammoth carcass	376
H. Kubiak
Two mammoth sites in La Alta Mixteca (Oaxaca), Mexico	377
P. Quevedo Robles, T. Quevedo de Henella

Sessione C

Gli elefanti nell’immaginario collettivo Elephants and collective imagery

Un donario fittile con elefanti e Cerbero dal santuario di Portonaccio a Veio L. Ambrosini	381
Un frammento marmoreo con testa di elefante dall’area archeologica centrale di Roma P. Ciancio Rossetto, E.M. Loreti	387
Gli elefanti si radunano presso il fiume Amilo M.A. Ferrante	390
Gli elefanti di Annibale nelle monete puniche e neopuniche L.-I. Manfredi	394
The elephants in Rome: history, legends and anecdotes R. Manni	397
Did endemic dwarf elephants survive on Mediterranean islands up to protohistorical times? M. Masseti	402
L’Arco di Domiziano con quadrighe di elefanti R. Volpe, E.M. Loreti	407
Engraved, painted and carved mammoths of the Rhône basin (Upper Palaeolithic) J. Combier	411

Workshop

L’utilizzazione delle ossa di Proboscidi nella vita quotidiana durante il Paleolitico (Coordinatori: S. Gaudzinski, E. Turner) The use of Proboscidean remains in every day Palaeolithic life (Chair: S. Gaudzinski, E. Turner)

Tools from elephant bones at La Polledrara di Cecanibbio and Rebibia-Casal de’ Pazzi A.P. Anzidei	415
Mammoth bone technology at Tocuila in the Basin of Mexico J. Arroyo-Cabral, E. Johnson, L. Morett	419
On the significance of modified mammoth bones from eastern Beringia J. Cinq-Mars	424

Ex Proboscideis - Proboscidean remains as raw material at four Palaeolithic sites, Hungary	429
V.T. Dobosi
The Krems-Wachtberg camp-site: mammoth carcass utilization along the Danube 27,000 years ago	432
F.A. Fladerer
Mammoth bone quarrying on the late Wisconsinan North American grasslands	439
E. Johnson
Mammoth tusk processing using the knapping technique in the Upper Paleolithic of the Central Russian Plain	444
G.A. Khlopatchev
The production of Upper Palaeolithic mammoth bone artifacts from south-western Germany	448
S.C. Münnzel
The utilisation of mammoth remains as raw material and its importance for the Gravettian people of the German Danube	455
A. Scheer
Ivory points in the Lower Paleolithic of Europe	460
P. Villa, F. d'Errico
Ivory as a raw material during the Upper Palaeolithic of the northern edge of the Iberian Peninsula: personal ornaments and other artifacts	464
E. Álvarez Fernández
The hunting of mammoth and the utilisation of mammoth bones and ivory in the Rhône basin	465
J. Combier, G. Onoratini
Mammoth cutlery: mammoth flakes for mammoth steaks	466
A. Hannus
Two centres of Paleolithic art in Ukraine: the mammoth bone objects	467
L. Kulakovska
The variability of the utilisation of mammoth remains from assemblages at three Epigravettian sites in the northern Ukraine	468
D. Nuzhnyi
Proboscidean bone modification in the Middle/Upper Palaeolithic of the Japanese Islands	469
A. Ono
Ivory pendants in the Belgian Palaeolithic	470
M. Otte

Workshop

Elefanti endemici: modelli evolutivi (Coordinatore: A. Lister)

Dwarf elephants: evolutionary patterns (Chair: A. Lister)

Channel Islands (USA) pygmy mammoths (Mammuthus exilis) compared and contrasted with M. columbi, their continental ancestral stock L.D. Agenbroad	473
Large-sized and middle-sized elephants from the Pleistocene of Sicily: the case of Contrada Fusco (Siracusa, Southeastern Sicily) S. Chilardi	476
Palaeoloxodon cypriotes, the dwarf elephant of Cyprus: size and scaling comparisons with P. falconeri (Sicily-Malta) and mainland P. antiquus P. Davies, A.M. Lister	479
Mammuthus lamarmorae (Major, 1883) remains in the pre-Tyrrhenian deposits of San Giovanni in Sinis (Western Sardinia, Italy) R. Melis, M.R. Palombo, M. Mussi	481
Endemic elephants of the Mediterranean Islands: knowledge, problems and perspectives M.R. Palombo	486
Paedomorphic features and allometric growth in the skull of Elephas falconeri from Spinagallo (Middle Pleistocene, Sicily) M.R. Palombo	492
The Middle Pleistocene fossil avifauna from the “Elephas mnaidriensis Faunal Complex” of Sicily (Italy): preliminary results M. Pavia	497
Scaling of proximal limb bones between Elephas antiquus and its insular descendant Elephas falconeri P. Raia, C. Barbera, M. Conte	502
Ecology and evolution of dwarfing in insular elephants V.L. Roth	507
New data on Elephas chaniensis (Vamos cave, Chania, Crete) N.K. Symeonides, G.E. Theodorou, V.I. Giannopoulos	510
The excavations of the last ten years at Charkadio cave on Tilos Island, Dodekanese, Greece G.E. Theodorou, N.K. Symeonides	514
Populations of woolly mammoth in North-East Siberia - dwarfing in isolation or last stage of extinction? A. Tikhonov, S. Vartanyan	519

Workshop

Nuove tecniche di analisi per lo studio dei proboscidiati

(Coordinatori: A. Longinelli, M. Barbieri)

Methodological advances in the analysis of Proboscideans

(Chair: A. Longinelli, M. Barbieri)

Comparative observations on fossil tusks from three Quaternary Greek localities using scanning electron microscopy

523

K. Agiadi

Microwear analysis of Mammuthus meridionalis (Nesti, 1825) molar from

529

Campo del Conte (Frosinone, Italy)

M. Capozza

Isotope and microwear analyses on teeth of late Middle Pleistocene Elephas antiquus from the Rome area (La Polledrara, Casal de' Pazzi)

534

M.L. Filippi, M.R. Palombo, M. Barbieri, M. Capozza, P. Iacumin, A. Longinelli

Discreteness of evolution and variability in mammoth lineage:

540

method for group study

I.V. Foronova, A.N. Zudin

Phylogenetic position of Elephas, Loxodonta and Mammuthus, based on molecular evidence

544

U. Joger, G. Garrido

Preliminary U-series results and dating of faunal remains from Castel di Guido, Italy

548

V. Michel, Y. Yokoyama, G. Boschian

Genetic data indicating that Mammuthus primigenius includes two species

552

G.S. Rautian, I.A. Dubrovo

Observations on the diagenesis of dwarf elephant skeletal remains from the island of Tilos (Dodekanese, Greece)

557

E.T. Stathopoulou, G.E. Theodorou

Observations on the microstructure of fossil tusks from the Charkadio cave (Tilos, Dodekanese, Greece)

563

G. E. Theodorou, K. Agiadi

Workshop

Loxodonta africana e Elephas maximus: strumenti operativi

di controllo per la tutela di specie in estinzione

(Coordinatore: E. Morgante)

Loxodonta africana and Elephas maximus: operational and surveillance means to defend endangered species

Workshop

Manufatti e resti di elefanti nel Paleolitico inferiore e medio della penisola iberica

(Coordinatori: M. Santonja, A. Pérez-González, P. Villa)

Stone tools and elephant remains in the Lower and Middle

Palaeolithic of the Iberian Peninsula

(Chair: M. Santonja, A. Pérez-González, P. Villa)

Geomorphology and stratigraphy of the Ambrona site (central Spain)

587

A. Pérez-González, M. Santonja, A. Benito

Lithic artifacts from the lower levels of Ambrona (Spain) - taphonomic features

592

M. Santonja, A. Pérez-González

Elephants and stone artifacts in the Middle Pleistocene terraces of the Manzanares river (Madrid, Spain)

597

M. Santonja, A. Pérez-González, G. Vega, I. Rus

Elephants in the archaeological sites of Aridos (Jarama valley, Madrid, Spain)

602

M. Santonja, A. Pérez-González, P. Villa, E. Soto, C. Sesé
